SUSPENSION BRIDGE, CLIFTON. Clifton is the high-lying residential quarter at the west end of Bristol, on a limestone plateau 5,000 acres in area, and nearly 300 feet above the level of the city. The graceful and lofty Suspension Bridge was begun by Brunel in 1831 and completed in 1864. The chains once formed part of the old Hungerford Bridge in London. The centre of the Bridge commands a splendid view of the gorge of the Avon.
